Hon, JOHR Bannstein Ginson, Judge of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania, died in Philadelphia on the 3d instant, aged 73 years. Judge Gibson was born in Carlisle, Pennsylvania, in the year 1789. He was the son of Colonel Legrig Gibson, a well known and distinguished officer of the Kevolutionary war, who fell while figuring with the Indians, at St. Clair's defeat, in 1791. He was educated at Flickinson College, where he graduated in 1860. He then studied law under Thomas Duncan, Esq. of Carlisle, and was admitted to the bar in 1803. After some interval employed in the selection of a place to commence practice, he finally opened an office in Carlisle, where he soon won a high reputation as a lawyer. He was sent twice to the Legislature, in 1819 and 1811, giving a sealous support to the administration of Gov. Snyder and President Madison. In 1812 Gov. Snyder appointed him Judge of the Eleventh Judicial District, just organized in Northern Pennsylvania, and in 1818 he was elevated to the Supreme Sench. In 1827, on the death of Chief Justice Tilghama, Gov. Shulta appointed him to the vacancy, and he held the office from that time until 1851, when the ammendment to the constitution made the judiciary elective. Having received the democratic nomination, Judge Gibson was elected to the Supreme Bench by a large mejority, and drew the nine years term, of which scarcely a year and a half had elapsed at his death.

which scarcely a year and a half had capped at his death Thomas Elder. Pa. and for the last thirty-five years President of the Harrisburg Bank deed last week. It is stated that he knew well the ground on which Harrisburg stands when it was a farm laid off in fields, with but one or two houses on it. He was prominently instrumental in procuring the eruction of the Harrisburg bridge, between the years 1814 and 1818, then much the longest bridge in the United States.

MRS. MARY L. WARD, wife of Major Genaral Aaron Ward of Westchester, did on the lat inst., at her residence in Sing Sing, after a short liness. Mrs. Ward was a daughter of the late Elkanah Watson, of this State, who was well known as a distinguished philanthropist—a man of great public spirit, and an early and zealous advocate of our internal improvements, which have given such an impulse to the growth and prosperity of the State of New York. His daughter, Mrs. Ward, was an accomplished lady, cultivated refined, and especially distinguished for those traits of character which mark a devoted wife and mother. She has reared an interesting family of daughters, who are now nearly all married—the eldest to Col. Ward B Burnert, one to the Hon. John R. Thompson, United States Senator from New Jersey, one to Samuel J. Randall, son to Josiah Randall, Esq. of Philadelphia; one to Mr. Todd, a retired merchant; and another to a son of Senator Brandreth. The General and Mrs. Ward were married in 1820, and have been bleased with wealth, happiness, and until now, health. During the many years General Ward was absent at the seat of government and other places, in the discharge of his public duties, Mrs. Ward devoted herself to the education of their children, and all objects of charity within their sphere, and by her great worth and amiability has always commanded the highest esteem of all who knew her. She died as she liyed a Christian, and has left a large circle of relations and friends to moorn her loss.

The Liquor Law in Vermont—The Way it

Works.

[From the Woodstock Spirit of the Age May 5.]

It appears to be the game of the temperance fanatics, in order to impress the public with the idea that the new inquer law is working wonders, to make a great flourish of trumpets over every reported case, without any repart for the facts. In more than four-fifths of the cases, thus far, where complaints have been made the proceedings have been abortive; and in almost every instance so far as we are acquainted with the facts, the complaints have emanated from personal maligrity and spite. The cause on we are acquainted with the facts, the companies have commanted from personal maligrity and spite. The cause of temperance is now a tool for facts nevel politicians and "reformed drunkards" with which to achieve the ends of small ambition, and average neighborhood spite—a species of intestine war carried on by a combination of all the worst passions which are implanted in the breasts of the worst of men.

This for instance, the case at South Possibles, when cies of intestine war carried on by a combination of all the worst passions which are implanted in the breasts of the worst of men.

Take, for instance, the case at South Royalton, about which considerable has been said. The complaint originated in malice and was made by a wild and reckless young man who is reported to be a free user of the contraband flued. The facts in the case are as follows: Complaint was made to Justice Wells by young Mellish and two others, (neither of whom were legal voters in the town.) and a warrant was issued Sherill Wheeler repaired to the 'suspicted place and hesserine was made. But masted of there being about 60 grillons,' the whole invoice amounted to one gallon of American gra, in an old dried up cask, two gailons of American brandy similarly situated, and about one half barrel of musty wine, all of which had remained undisturbed in the place it was found for upwards of three years with the exception that the wine was placed upon the platform outside of the store last summer, as an indecement to it to 'turn to vinegar.' Thus is the extent of the South Royalton Seizure,' which has so convulsed a certain class in community. When the time for holding the court came, no one appeared for the processorion. Sufficient time was taxen to send to a neighboring village for a lawyer, but none could be procured even the one who was hired to draw up the complaint—ands rand law man, too—refusing to dirty his lands further in the matter. In this cilemma, the complaint—and s rand law man, too—refusing to dirty his lands further in the matter. In this cilemma the court adjourned the Justice, we enderstand, would have gladly assed the complaint numericed, but the "pains and remattes" hung over him, and to use a quaint old vulperism. The most either fish or cut bait. "

BURNING POWDER FROM PERCUSSION CAPS, AND looking in to the if Come out — A most singular explosion occurred yesterday in the lower section of the lousty, which was the result of gross ignorance. An frishman, hance Michael Foldage, keeper of an old junk abop at the coult west corner of Christian and Seventh streets, purchased a few days since about forty pounds of damages percussion caps, for old copper. Michael inquired of the person who sold them to him how he should get the person who sold them to him how he should get the person who sold them to him how he should get the person who sold them to him how he should get the person who sold them to him how he should get the person who sold them to him how he should get the person who sold them to him how he should get the person who sold them to him how he should get the person who sold them to him how he should get the powder of his horder. The person has the person had been sufficiently to the floor, and severely sounded in the face and hands. The poor fellow scarcely knew what to make of the matter, but thought the fid hop timeelf had got in among the caps it is asterishing that he was not killed. A portion of his clothing was tore off and one of his stout boots was aplit almost in two He was taken to the Moyamensing House of humanty and his wounds were dressed by Dr. Zuitch, the house july scan. Michael will be careful how he middless with percussion caps hereafter. — Philadelphia News, May 6. BURNING POWDER FROM PERCUSSION CAPS. AND

We learn from the Marlloro', Md., Gazette, that the tobacco plants in that vicinity are suffering very much from the fly. So extendive are the depretations that many planters will have to plant short crops.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL.

MONEY MARKET.

SATURDAY, May 7-6 P. M. The stock woard was again quite dull this morning, cand as a nearest sense the priors for certain descriptions fell off, not with standing the efforts of those interested to keep them up. At the first board Comberland Coal Company went deep 2 : Phoenis Mining, 1 : Erie Railroad, Morris Caral, and Florence and Keyport, 14; Capton Company, M., Harter, italiroud and Nicaragua Transit, Mr. There was a favorial attempt at a rally at the second board, and Morris Canal and Canton improved M ; Nicapages, & Comberland Coal. 34 Phoenix Mining, X; Inte Railroad, M. and Budson Siver, M. Florence and Leyport dropped off another 34

The abundance and cheapmen of money is beginning to bake thelf felt, not only on the stock board but through out the different branches of trade generally. The total expects of specie for the week suding to day amounted to Sign 246, of which the steemship Hamboitt, which sailed for Havre yesterday, took out $100,710, and the Merlin, in St. Thomas, &c., $221,437 But this office of bullion from our city was in some measure counterbalanced by he arrival of the back Flash from Vera Cruz with $162,187, and the steamer Southerner from Charleston with $5,000. Before the expiration of the coming week we shall probably receive over twice the amount of pretious metal exported during the last six days by arrivals from California.

The receipts at the office of the Assistant Treasurer of this port to-day amounted to $125,794.00, and the payments to $2,022.47—balance in the hands of the Assistant Treasurer $7,188,639.86, being an increase of $182,637 75 as compared with the close of the books

In order to give distant readers some idea of what is seing done in this vicinity, we annex a table showing the receipts and deposits at the Custom House, and the eccipts and payments at the Assistant Treasurer's office,
